BREMEN: Judge A. J. Cowart and J. A. du Bignon, of Georgia. FIFTH AVENUE: Senator William D. Washburn, of Minnesota. GRAND: Lieutenant-Colonel S. M. Mansfield, U. S. Engineer. METROPOLIS: State Senator M. P. Collins, Troy. PARK AVENUE: Justices David L. Poole, Alton B. Parker and Charles E. Parker, of the New York Supreme Court. WESTMINSTER: Bishop William Paret, Baltimore.

NEW-YORK CITY.

The hall of the Young Men's Institute, No. 222 Bowery, was well filled yesterday afternoon with an appreciative audience, who listened intently to an interesting discourse on "The Athletes of the Bible," by the Rev. Alexander F. Irvine, pastor of the Church of the Sea and Land, at Henry and Market sts. Frank S. Grove, of the Ludlow Street Mission, presided. The discourse was preceded by a service of song, with instrumental accompaniment, led by W. J. Kammerer.

The second eclipse of the year will occur on Thursday. It will be an annular eclipse of the sun, but will not be visible in America, except in Alaska.

Large quantities of cypress shingles have been included in recent lumber shipments from Southern ports to New-York.

A large collection of standard and scarce books, including several fine copies of Diderot's works, Grolier Club publications, etc., and a valuable lot of engravings from the estate of Caleb Quigg, of Philadelphia, will be sold by Bangs & Co., No. 73 Broadway, beginning this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Princeton University Glee, Barrio and Mandolin clubs, with a chorus of fifty voices, will give their annual concert in this city on April 14, at Carnegie Music Hall.

The regular quarterly meeting and session of the Committee of Discipline of Company F, 7th Regiment, will be held at the armory on Thursday evening.

AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

THE MAYOR ANNOYED BY A DRUNKEN MAN.

Mayor Schieren and his wife were the victims of annoyance from a fellow-passenger in a street car yesterday afternoon, and the Mayor had the man, John Farrell, of No. 215 DeKalb-ave., arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was taken to the Adams Street Police Station. He was locked up for the night, and the Mayor will appear as a complainant against him before Police Justice Walsh this morning.

INSTITUTE LECTURES THIS WEEK.

The eighth of the series of lectures before the members of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences upon "The Great Lessons Taught by the Columbian Exposition" will be given by the Rev. Ida C. Hulton, of Moline, Ill., in Art Association Hall, on Wednesday evening. Her subject will be "Woman's work at the World's Fair." On Thursday evening the Rev. Thomas Van Ness, of Boston, will lecture under the auspices of the Institute and the Long Island Historical Society, in the hall of the latter, in the course upon "The Opening of the Great West," on "Lewis and Clarke and the Exploration of the Rocky Mountains." Professor William N. Rice, of Wesleyan University, will lecture in Art Association Hall on Tuesday evening "The Red Sandstones and Trap of the Connecticut River Valley," before the Department of Geology of the Institute. Percival Chubb will lecture on "Milton's Comedy" in Art Association Hall on Friday afternoon.

TEMPERANCE PEOPLE PROTEST.

The Brooklyn Temperance League held a meeting yesterday afternoon in Broadway Memorial Hall, at Willoughby and Raymond sts., to protest against open liquor shops on Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Wright presided. Daniel G. Harriman spoke on the question: "Why Not Enforce the Excise Law?" and argued that the moral sentiment of the community must be behind the enforcement of all laws, or they were dead letters. Dr. I. K. Funk spoke on the question, "Who is on Top, the Christian Community or the Saloon?" He condemned Mayor Schieren for not securing the closing of all liquor shops on Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Campbell, C. S. Leigh and others also spoke.

TO DISCUSS A SOCIAL PROBLEM.

A free meeting will be held in Assembly Hall, Pratt Institute, on Wednesday afternoon, April 4, at 2 o'clock. The subject will be "The Relation of the Rich to the Poor"—I. What should be the aim in our charities. Alleviation of want, Christian sympathy, or indication of principle of thrift? 2. On what moral principle do we permit ourselves luxuries when so many suffer for necessities? 3. Is the luxury of the rich the maintenance of the poor? 4. Has any woman a right to luxurious idleness? 5. What can the well-to-do do for the poor? The speakers will be Mrs. C. R. Lowell, Dr. W. S. Hainsford and R. W. Glider.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

The Rev. J. Douglas Adam addressed a meeting for young men in Association Hall yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Charles M. Griffin preached his farewell sermon as pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, in Seventh-ave., yesterday, as he has served the church for five years and must go elsewhere.

Dr. Talmage preached to a large audience yesterday in the Tabernacle, on "My Memory of Kossuth and the Lessons of His Life." The sermon set forth the salient features of the career of the Hungarian patriot, and deduced the obvious lessons of his long public experience.

The staff of "The Brooklyn Times" had their annual dinner on Saturday evening at the Hanover Club. It was made a tribute to Albert C. Waterman, who after twenty-three years' service in the business department of the newspaper retires from the post of cashier on account of ill-health. W. M. Wood presided and James A. Sperry was toastmaster. There were about sixty present. Speeches were made by the guest of the evening, Bernard Peters, W. McDonald Wood, W. C. Bryant, J. A. Hamilton, George H. Rowe, W. H. Cassidy, and others.

Professor Marvin R. Vincent, of Union Theological Seminary, lectured upon "Human Speech as a Witness to God" in Association Hall last evening. The lecture was under the auspices of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, and was in the Angus Graham course upon "The Power, Wisdom and Goodness of God as Manifested in His Works."

An additional dividend of 162-3 per cent will be paid by the receiver of the defunct Commercial Bank to-day to the depositors, who have already received 50 per cent of the amount due to them.

Derivatives are up and work has been begun on the improvements to the section of the bridge property between Sands and High sts. A large amount of material is on the ground ready for use.

The big clock in the new Eagle Storage Warehouse, built on the site of the old "Eagle" Building, in lower Fulton-st., attracts much attention from people who cross the bridge at night.

Tribune ; ; Text Book ~ For 1894. ~

BEST OF THE ARTICLES OF ROSWELL G. HARR FROM THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

This is a well printed pamphlet of 108 pages, price 25 cents a copy. It is particularly strong in financial articles, and has explanatory chapters on "Gold and Silver as Money," "The Bank of England," "the old United States Bank," "Continental Money," "What a Clearing House is," "Modus Operandi of the Stock Exchange," "Confederate Gold Dollars," "Origin of the Sherman Law," "National Bank Notes," "Labor Money," "State Banks: A Southern Idea," and numerous other financial topics.

There is a condensed summary of the origin of the Morrill Tariff, the reduction of war taxes by the Republicans, and the tariff reduction in Congress. Extracts are given from notable remarks in the present Congress on the Wilson bill. The Wilson bill is discussed in a number of articles. As a document, it throws light on the issues of 1894.

on the Brooklyn Elevated road is increasing. They are called ticket-sellers, though at most of the stations no tickets are used.

An uptown resident complains that gallantry toward women in public conveyances is declining. He says that on his way home on Friday, in a trolley-car, an elderly woman was on the point of taking a seat just vacated when a man rushed in through the front door and flung himself into the vacant place just as the old lady was on the point of sitting down.
